

blackwattle

The name blackwattle is reference to the smell and feeling of Sydney in Spring. For Head Chef Clayton Wells, this always reminds him of home and we want you to feel at home here.

The wines served at blackwattle are sourced from artisan wine-growers near and far;

welcome

men and women with a passion for their craft, a deep respect for their land and a thoughtful approach to their processes. The list offers wines of distinction, often produced with minimal intervention, always reflective of the place they were grown and the people who have made them.
